Boca Raton, FL (prHWY.com) December 1, 2010 - Proxy1Media donates a website to a Non Profit for the Holidays.

Having family that were interested in model T Fords that belonged to this club and knowing that they didn't have any online branding or marketing Proxy1Media donated their time and website skills in creating a website for the SunCoast Model T club that resides in St. Petersburg Florida.

This Model T "fan" club will now be able to showcase their founders, board members, meetings along with having an area to showcase event photos, Model T Ford History including an entire section dedicated to Henry Ford Himself.

Founder Dave Saitta of Proxy1Media a Search Engine Marketing Company in Boca Raton writes, "We hope the Guys and Gals over at Sun Coast Model T can use this site to show off some of their beautiful autos while keeping the public informed about their up and coming events. Knowing that the club has many events and meetings but didn't have an online spot to show the world, we had to get them something." Of course Dave had to plug his company reminding everyone that If anyone needed any SEO in Boca Raton or any Internet Marketing Help that they are ready to advise most anytime. 561.961.4353 www.Proxy1Media.com
