Lisa Williams (born 19 June 1973 in Birmingham, England) is a claimed psychic and healer who has starred in two shows on Lifetime TV: Lisa Williams: Life Among the Dead (2006-2007) and Lisa Williams: Voices From the Other Side (2008).

Williams is the granddaughter of Frances Glazebrook, a well known British medium.

Williams also appeared on Deal or No Deal when the episode aired on NBC on 31 March 2008. She also made a guest appearance in one of Lifetime's other shows called America's Psychic Challenge.

In 2004, Williams gave a reading to a senior staff member of TV host Merv Griffin. As a result, Griffin worked with her to host a show of her own. Lisa Williams: Life Among the Dead aired for two seasons on the Lifetime network 2006-2007. Her show Lisa Williams: Voices From the Other Side ran for five consecutive nights on the network in October 2008. Her shows are also seen in United Kingdom on three different networks. The shows followed Williams on a typical day, as she claims to communicate with the dead, investigates haunted houses, and conducts other spirit-seeking activities. She claims she has spoken to Bob Hope, Princess Diana, Natalie Wood, Marilyn Monroe and Ray Charles after they died.

In March 2009 Williams toured Australia, donating the profits to the Australian bushfire appeal - a total of $65,000.
