
Mesothelioma Victims Center Now Urges Family Members Of A Loved One Who Has Recently Died From Mesothelioma To Call Them

The Mesothelioma Victims Center is urging families struggling with a loss of a loved one due to a rare form of cancer called mesothelioma to not wait too long to try to get some help.

Washington, D.C. (prHWY.com) May 3, 2013 - The Mesothelioma Victims Center says, "While there is nothing we can do without an actual mesothelioma diagnosis, we will still do everything possible for a family dealing with a loss of a loved one to this rare form of cancer, provided it's been within the last few years, and provided a physician indicated mesothelioma as the cause of death. Everything possible includes nearly instant access to the most experienced, and skilled mesothelioma attorneys in the nation." Based on the conversations with family members they have nearly every week the Mesothelioma Victims Center is convinced hundreds of victims of mesothelioma never pursue a compensation claim, in most instances because they did not want anything to do with law firms. The group is trying to change this sad fact by making certain victims of mesothelioma have instant access to the most capable, and passionate mesothelioma lawyers, because there could be hundreds of thousands, or millions of dollars on the line for a victim, or their family members. Family members dealing with from a loss of a loved one to a rare form of cancer called mesothelioma are always welcome to call the Mesothelioma Victims Center at 866-714-6466.

The Mesothelioma Victims Center says, "High risk groups for mesothelioma cancer include US Navy Veterans, shipyard, power plant, or oil refinery workers, most types of industrial, or manufacturing workers, plumbers, electricians, county, or city municipal water district workers, miners, demolition construction workers, railroad workers, or auto brake technicians, with the caveat the victim of mesothelioma was probably exposed to the asbestos in the 1950's, 1960's, 1970's, or 1980's." US Navy Veterans, individuals, or family members dealing with a mesothelioma diagnosis, or a recent loss of a loved one to mesothelioma are urged to contact the Mesothelioma Victims Center anytime at 866-714-6466. <http://MesotheliomaVictimsCenter.Com>

The Mesothelioma Victims Center says, "According to the CDC the states with the most individuals diagnosed with mesothelioma per capita include Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Washington, Wyoming, Maine, and New Jersey. However based on the calls we get California, New York, Florida, Texas, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, North Dakota, Idaho, Montana, Rhode Island, and Oklahoma should also be included in this list. We are passionate about making certain all US victims of mesothelioma get the best help possible including instant access to the most experienced, and capable mesothelioma lawyers, and the most advanced healthcare treatment options. We encourage victims of mesothelioma, or their family members to call us anytime at 866-714-6466."
