
Surprise Company Wins International Business Excellence Award

Animal Shelter Fundraising, a Surprise-based company, is the Winner of the 2016 International Business Excellence Award for Best Animal Welfare Fundraising Organization in the U.S.A. from Acquisition International Phoenix, AZ (prHWY.com) April 2, 2016 - Surprise-based Animal Shelter Fundraising is the Winner of the 2016 International Business Excellence Award for Best Animal Welfare Fundraising Organization in the U.S.A. from Acquisition International ("AI"), the company announced today.

Animal Shelter Fundraising is a two-time winner of the International award, which is given to a business that demonstrates ingenuity, creativity and excellence in fundraising within the animal welfare industry. The Surprise-based company is considered by many professionals within the animal sheltering industry to be a key-influencer of philanthropy and fundraising matters in animal welfare.

"Receiving the 2016 International Business Excellence Award for Best Animal Welfare Fundraising Organization in the U.S.A. is such an honor because it validates my company's hard-work and creative approach to advancing fundraising in the entire animal sheltering industry," remarks company founder and CEO Tim Crum. "This award only strengthens our commitment to providing the highest quality fundraising services at an affordable price to animal shelters and humane societies."

The prestigious AI Business Excellence Awards celebrates the outstanding performance and results achieved by the industry's leading organizations and innovators. Through these awards, AI recognizes and rewards outstanding success, innovation and ethics across international business communities.
