
Rapidly growing dietary supplement brand NuvoMed becomes part of the esteemed Natural Products Expo East

Nuvomed Natural Trade Expo Press Release

Baltimore, MD (prHWY.com) September 11, 2019 - NuvoMed is a champion for all things natural, herbal and unadulterated. Nuvomed is looking to gradually enhance the dietary supplements game in the market altogether by becoming one of the leading herbal supplements selling brands in the USA in a short period of time. In a world full of chemical consumption and adulterated foods, the brand promised purity and uncompromisable quality, a bold choice. Multiple checks of the product before final packaging, vigilance about curating raw ingredients to obtain extracts and in-house testing labs enabled this huge success and sets NuvoMed apart from the rest of its competitors. Their selected products are available at large pharmacy retail chains, grocery stores, and specialty stores.

Their rise in natural dietary supplements in USA has provided them with the opportunity to be a part of the elite Natural Products Expo East hosted at the Baltimore Convention Centre between September 12-14, 2019. The coveted event is designed for trade shows, education conferences, and in-person networking events for their preferred means of finding new industry opportunities while strengthening current business relationships. This year, NuvoMed has their own booth to showcase their products and to boost their business connections in the industry. They will be launching a new product called 'Party Ready' at this Expo. Party-Ready is a 100% vegetarian, anti-hangover capsule. The launch of this product is scheduled among various events taking place during the three days of the Expo. Natural Products Expo East is the perfect place to showcase a new product that is innovating with organic goodness. They understand the importance of honoring a more sustainable and potent food supplements system.

During the launch of the NuvoMed Party Ready, they plan on highlighting that all their products are made from the carefully curated medicinal herbs and that they pride themselves on providing only the best for all their buyers. Their unique method of extraction of Pure Plant Extracts as opposed to powdered herbs used by other professionals is what sets them apart in this industry. Pure Plant Extracts provide extra potency as compared to the powdered form, thus giving the users the maximum benefit. Their mind and memory product Ashwagandha herbal dietary supplements boast the presence of 5% withanolides (the active ingredient in the herb). All these minute yet intricate details about their products and their passion for providing the American population with wellness is what really sets them apart in the industry. All the products are crafted with the help of leading technology and ancient Ayurveda knowledge combined. The products designed are made from Pure Plant Extracts and promises to provide maximum potency to the supplements. Moreover, natural dietary supplements are vegan, gluten-free, sugar-free, has no GMO and are 100% herbal. The thought behind the process is to be able to provide the best natural care to all the individuals and, in turn, transform their lives to a healthier lifestyle. These dietary supplements are safe and accessible for anyone and everyone for usage. The in-house Quality Control Laboratories, Analytical Research Laboratories, and Microbiology Laboratories are fully equipped with cutting edge instruments and provide assurance of the best quality product for maximum customer satisfaction.
